

1. Detection of an edge on a plastic tube

During the rotation of a plastic tube, an edge on the upper side of the tube should be detected. For this purpose a laser displacement sensor type C-LAS-LT-35 is used. The distance from the sensor to the plastic tube is approximately 35mm. The edge can be detected properly.

